Slow Write - Easter

Other makes of Easter eggs are also available!

1. Your first sentence must contain dialogue (speech).
2. Your second sentence must contain an expanded noun phrase.
3. Your third sentence must contain a modal verb.
4. Your fourth sentence must be a question.
5. Your fifth sentence must begin with a subordinate clause.
6. Your sixth sentence must be short (no more than 3 or 4 words).
7. Your seventh sentence must begin with an adverb.

e.g.

1. "Eat me," it whispered from its cardboard prison.
2. I looked closely, sensing the rich, chocolatey aroma emanating from its golden clothing.
3. It would be cruel to keep it locked up.
4. Should I release it?
5. If I was careful, I could take a small bite, reseal it and return it to its cage.
6. Nobody would know.
7. Unfortunately, I neglected to wipe the tell-tale chocolate stain from my chin!

As paragraphs:

"Eat me," it whispered from its cardboard prison.

I looked closely, sensing the rich, chocolatey aroma emanating from its golden clothing. It would be cruel to keep it locked up. Should I release it? If I was careful, I could take a small bite, reseal it and return it to its cage. Nobody would know.

Unfortunately, I neglected to wipe the tell-tale chocolate stain from my chin!