1. Introduction

Newnham St Peter's C of E Primary School strives to ensure that the culture and ethos of the school are such that, whatever the abilities and needs of members of the school community, everyone is equally valued and treats one another with respect. Pupils should be provided with the opportunity to experience, understand and value diversity.

Newnham St Peter's School aims to treat all stakeholders, including pupils, prospective pupils, staff, governors and other members of the school community favourably and, wherever possible, takes reasonable steps to avoid placing anyone at a substantial disadvantage. The school aims to work closely with disabled pupils, their families and any relevant outside agencies in order to remove or minimise any potential barriers to learning, which puts them at a disadvantage, but allows them to learn, achieve and participate fully in school life. The school is active in promoting positive attitudes to disabled people in the school and in planning to increase access to education for all disabled pupils. As part of the school's continued communication with parents, carers and other stakeholders we continually look at ways to improve accessibility through data collection, questionnaires and parental discussions.

The definition of disability: "A person suffers a disability if he or she has an impairment that has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on his or her ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities."

Physical or mental impairments can include sensory impairments (such as those affecting sight and hearing) and learning difficulties. The definition also covers certain medical conditions when they have a long-term and substantial effect on pupils' everyday lives.

We recognise our duty under the Disability Discrimination Act (95) as amended by the SENDA (2001) ... "from September 2002, it will be unlawful for schools and LEAs to discriminate against disabled pupils in their admissions and exclusions, education and associated services"

Schools and LEAs must:

- not treat disabled pupils less favourably; and
- take reasonable steps to avoid putting disabled pupils at a substantial disadvantage (the 'reasonable adjustment' duty)

Local Education Authority and School governors have the duty to publish Accessibility Strategies and Plans

As a Church of England School, we identify Christian values that underpin the whole of our community. These values inform our school's vision, aims and ethos, the design of our curriculum, all policies, planning and the school's management and governance. The values that relate particularly to this policy are friendship and respect.

2. Scope of the Plan

Our policy is to maintain an Accessibility plan. This plan covers all four main strands of the planning duty:

- Improving the physical environment of the school for the purpose of increasing the extent to which disabled pupils can take advantage of education and associated services. This strand of the planning duty covers aids to improve the physical environment of the school and physical aids to access education. The physical environment includes things such as steps, kerbs, exterior surfaces and paving, parking areas, building entrances and exits (including emergency escape routes), internal and external doors, gates, toilets and washing facilities, lighting, ventilation, floor coverings, signs and furniture. Aids to physical access include ramps, handrails, widened doorways, electromagnetic doors, adapted toilets and washing facilities, adjustable lighting, blinds, induction loops and way-finding systems.
- Physical aids to access education cover things such as ICT equipment, enlarged computer screens and keyboards, concept keyboards, switches, specialist desks and chairs and portable aids for children with motor coordination and poor hand/eye skills, such as extra robust scientific equipment and specialist pens and pencils. The provision of a special piece of equipment or extra assistance will be made through the SEND framework and to a lesser extent through the planning duty which applies to all schools. The distinction between auxiliary aids and services provided through the SEND route and those provided under the planning duty is that the SEND duties relate to the individual, whereas the planning duty relates to the provision of aids or services in terms of the school population including: preparation for entry to the school, the curriculum, teaching and learning, classroom organisation, timetabling, grouping of pupils, homework, access to school facilities, activities to supplement the curriculum, school sports, school policies, breaks and lunchtimes, the serving of school meals, interaction with peers, assessment and exam arrangements, school discipline and sanctions, school clubs and activities, school trips, the school arrangements for working with other agencies, preparation of pupils for the next phase of education.
- Providing for the future population of the school. For example, a pupil with visual impairment might have low vision aids provided through the statement of SEND but the school might as a general measure provide blinds and adjustable lighting through the planning duty.
- Increase the extent to which disabled pupils can participate in the school's curriculum. This strand of the planning duty will help to improve access to a full, broad and balanced curriculum. It covers a range of elements including ensuring that teaching and learning is accessible through school and classroom organisation and support, especially deployment of staff, timetabling, curriculum options and staff information and training. Schools will be expected to plan to improve progressively access to the curriculum for all disabled pupils although many adjustments to access will be dependent on individual need and may be provided through the SEN framework. The accessibility strategies and plans will help to ensure that schools are planning and preparing to respond to the particular needs of individual pupils.

- Improving the delivery of information to pupils with disabilities. This part of the duty covers planning to make information normally provided by the school in writing to its pupils –such as handouts, timetables, textbooks, information about School events – available to disabled pupils. This will include alternative formats such as Braille, audio tape and large print and also the provision of information orally, through lip speaking or sign language, through a recognised symbol system or ICT. This information should also be made available within a reasonable time frame and take account of the pupils' disabilities and pupils' and parents' preferred formats.

Accessibility Plan

1. Communication/ Information

This will include planning to make written information that is normally provided by the school to its pupils, available to disabled pupils. Examples might include handouts and information about school events. The information should take account of pupils' needs and pupils' and parents' preferred formats and be made available within a reasonable timeframe.

In planning to make written information available to pupils, we need to establish the current level of need and be able to respond to changes in the range of need. The school will need to identify agencies and sources of such materials to be able to make the provision when required. The school's IT infrastructure will enable us to access a range of materials supportive to need.

Target	Strategies	Time-scale	Person responsible	Success criteria
Review information to parents/carers to ensure it is accessible	Provide information and letters in clear print School office will support and help parents/carers to access information and complete school forms Ensure all documents are accessible via the school website	On-going	All	All parents receive information in a form that can be accessed
Improve delivery of written information in appropriate format	Provide information for example with a different coloured background for dyslexic children or with larger font for visually impaired children. Interactive screens to be off white where applicable	As required	Class teachers	Everyone has access to all information
To review children's medical records to ensure awareness of disabilities	Collate information, analyse and share as appropriate	Ongoing Review of whole school in September and updated as required	Pastoral worker HT SBM Class teachers	Whole school is aware of children/adults with disabilities so provision can be made

2. Curriculum

Improving teaching and learning lies at the heart of the school's work. Through self-review and Continuous Professional Development (CPD), we aim to enhance staff knowledge, skills and understanding to promote excellent teaching and learning for all children. We aim to meet every child's needs within mixed ability, inclusive classes.

To ensure an accessible calm room is available for pupils with behavioural needs	Regularly inspect and maintain the room to ensure it remains a safe and inviting space. Evaluate its effectiveness through feedback from children, staff, and parents.		HT LAC	All pupils feel safe in school

Accessibility Audit

Feature	Description
Main building	All rooms are on one floor. Most rooms have direct access to the outside but 2 rooms are via steps. The approach to main entrance is stepped but an alternative path is available. There is step into the front porch There is wheelchair access via the extension to the reception classroom.
Toilets	The staff toilet can be used as a disabled toilet in the school
Playground	Outdoor spaces are moderately accessible, but consideration should be given to further enhance inclusivity in playgrounds and sports facilities. One access point is via steps. The alternative route includes a natural slope
Classrooms	Classroom layouts are generally inclusive; however, some adjustments are needed to ensure optimal accessibility for all, especially in terms of desk arrangements.
Field areas	Available to all pupils
Entrances	Most rooms have direct access to the outside but 2 rooms are via steps. These rooms can be entered via an alternative route

'cherish everyone, flourish together, serve others'

Emergency escape routes	Signage is clear and evacuation procedures are practised regularly. All escape routes are available without the need to use steps. These procedures will be adapted to meet the specific needs of an individual. Such procedures will be discussed with the pupil and parents and will be set out in the Personal Emergency Evacuation Plan for the pupil.
Communication Accessibility	Announcements and Notices: Communication methods lack consistency, and improvements are needed to ensure announcements are made through multiple accessible channels.
Improving the physical environment of the school	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Installation of external light by the main entrance</li><li>- Installation of external lights in the carpark</li><li>- Installation of external lights by the two classroom with steps and the library.</li><li>- Improvement to signs</li><li>- Improvement of front gate access</li><li>- improvement of strategies for dismissal from after school clubs, especially during the summer</li></ul> The school will take account of the needs of pupils and visitors with physical difficulties and sensory impairments when planning and undertaking future improvements and refurbishments of site and premises, such as improved lighting, acoustic treatment, colour schemes and more accessible facilities and fittings.
